

Bootstock 2010

Saturday 4th September

Resolis Memorial Hall

(On the Black Isle between Culbokie and Cromarty)

2.00pm until Midnight

Live music all day

Clachan Yell (Ceilidh Rock)
Big Bob's Blues Band (Rock & Blues)
RANT (Rock)
Vegas Hed Thug (Heavy Rock)
Roddy Huggan (Singer/Guitarist)
The Shakes (Rock)
Ewan Reid (Singer/Guitarist)
Gypsy Joe (up tempo folk)
Nelson's Mandola (Acoustic)
Dai Douglas (Singer/Guitarist)
Cameron MacDougall (Pipes)

Plus more special guests

Ticket Details

Limited number of tickets available so please confirm your attendance to ensure admission
No fixed ticket price but donations will be welcome (suggested donation - £10)

Drinks

There is no bar so please bring your own beer and refreshments

Food

There will be a very reasonably priced menu organised by Bootstock members, plus tea and coffee available throughout the day. Please feel free to take your own food along if you prefer, or if you have specific requirements.

Free Camping

Genuine Nepal arts & crafts
Bootstock Raffle
Sports and Games

Family friendly festival

All money raised goes to Bootstock Association projects - (minus £100 for hire of hall).
Find out more about these projects here <http://bootstock.org>

There are no administration costs and all bands are playing for free

How to get there

Turn off the A9 and take the B9169 / B9163 past Culbokie towards Cromarty. After 6.5 miles turn right (sign posted Resolis Memorial Hall and New Hall). The Memorial Hall is 0.5 miles down the road on right hand side before junction

Please see attached map for directions

Scottish Charity No. SC 036225
Established 2005

The Bootstock Association funds educational opportunities for disadvantaged children in the most remote and poorest regions of Nepal

<http://bootstock.org>

Resolis Memorial Hall - location map

